Alan Simpson MP - GN Health & Env. Partnership

www.alansimpson.co.uk

Dr Antony Dowd GP

From the early 1980's through to the current credit crunch Neo-liberalism has driven economic development across the world through the 'market globalisation' process. This workshop will explore the impacts of Neo-Liberalism on peoples health and offer some insights for a more equitable and healthy approach to future development.

6:30 – 8:15pm Thursday 19th March

Nottingham Mechanics, North Sherwood Street

A light buffet will be available from 6:00pm

This event will be relevant to all groups and individuals with an interest in health and environment

Please note that the HIYE AGM will follow immediately after the close of the workshop

Please complete and send to: HIYE, c/o Ian Hewitt, 3 Osborne Grove,
